ART BOTTEGA

ABOUT US:

We are a group of great individuals and professionals in fields of art, hospitality, entertainment and event management. Our goal is to bring art and fun together for non-professional painters like you. Our team consists of 5 professional artists - Dora, Ivana, Monika, Vana i Zrinka who take care of revealing hidden Picasso within you, and Stipe who brought us all together. There is one more essential ingredient of our events and that is quality authentic Croatian wine which you are free to sip as much as you want throughout the evening. You can find more about us through our website or social media.

Today, each member of our team has more than 10 years of professional art, event management and hospitality experience. We are extremely proud of bringing fun and laughter to adults, elders, couples or companies through our date nights, team buildings, charity events etc. We have participated in many interesting projects such as fundraising for the Down Syndrome association, engaging convicts to art classes in prisons here in Croatia, the official festival of Jered Leto and 30 sec to Mars band on island of Obonjan and many more.

ART BOTTEGA

This is not just about painting or drinking wine, we are set to create imposing and meaningful memories to this unique experience you are going to attend to.

Sip a glass and bring some of your own personality to the table!

WHAT YOU WILL DO:

As soon as you arrive, you will be offered with a glass of wine. You are free to sip as much as you like through the rest of the night for free. For those who are not into alcoholic drinks, we have some soft drinks available for you as well. Our lovely host will take you to your seats and explain what we will be actually doing with all these paint, canvases and brushes.

As you could already guess, this is not going to be an art school or anything like that. It is all about fun, meeting new people and creating some great experiences together.

Hosts will guide you step-by-step to help you make your own masterpiece. There will be a certain theme for the night for you to recreate it, but you are free to do anything you want to do as well. Or as long as you don't decide to paint the walls of our Art Bottega studio in some crazy colors. The best part is that you get to take your own piece
